

Llygaid y Ddinas

eyes of the city

What We Are:

- We are a young person's scrutiny panel. We scrutinise a plan which the Cardiff Children & Young Peoples Partnership have developed. The plan is a series of aims highlighted to help young people up to the age of 25.
- We are a group of young people who come from different backgrounds from across Cardiff.

Where We Are From:

- St Mellons
- Llanedeyrn
- Tremorfa
- Fairwater

Groups We Represent:

- POTV / Youth Service
- Turn On The Rights
- St John Ambulance
- St Mellon's Community Education Centre
- Coleg Glan Hafren

About The Plan:

- The plan comes in two versions, a full version for professionals and a shortened down young persons version (which we helped develop).

What We Have Achieved:

- We have scrutinised the drafts of the plan (2008).
- We have scrutinised members of each core group, on their sections of the plan (2008).
- We have helped develop the young persons friendly version of the plan (2008-2011).
- We have scrutinised the delivery report of the plan(2009).
- We have developed a DVD on our views and involvement with the group and plan(2009).

What We Have Achieved:

- We have taken what we have learnt and our experiences and passed these skills onto others(2010).
- We have started to Scrutinise the new plan which is being developed by the Cardiff Children & Young Peoples Partnership(2010).
- We have been been involved in various WAG consultations, most recently the poverty strategy (2010)
- Started to develop a small grants scheme linked to participation work (2010).

What Our Future Holds:

- To sit along side the Cardiff County Councils Children & Young Peoples Scrutiny Panel. (meetings arranged for Sept)
- Summer residential to plan and develop a consultation programme around the seven core outcomes.
- Help drive forward the participation strategy.
- Working together to get the voices of children and young people of Cardiff heard and to make Cardiff a better place for Children and young people.